Shawn Carney of 40 Days of Life, has reinforced us to the importance of our prayers for life, fasting and peaceful vigil in ending abortion. 40 Days for Life receives no government funding. Many of you have done prayer vigils at the Peoria and Bettendorf Abortion Clinics. We receive prayer bags which are made available to our Church family with information, prayers and scriptures especially for the unborn.

Mission Appeal
For Catholic Diocese of Geita
Tanzania—East Africa
Presented by Fr Christopher Magesa
June 14-15 St John the Beloved Parish

Fr Christopher Magesa is raising funds on behalf of the Catholic Diocese of Geita, Tanzania to support the young seminarians in their diocese who aspire to the vocation of priesthood for school fees and personal needs.

Currently, they have 45 seminarians who are studying in Philosophy and Theology. Among these, 20 are studying in Philosophy (First year to third year) and 25 are studying in Theology (First year to Fourth year). Roughly, a seminarian may spend $1000.00 on school fees and tuition per year.

Any donation is highly appreciated. God is not outdone by generosity! I ask you to be generous and kind to help future priests. Thank you in advance for your support. You can donate by check or cash through your parish office. Or make a check payable to: Catholic Diocese of Geita. Then you can deliver it to the parish office or send it to:

Fr Christopher Magesa
254 E. Tompkins ST
Galesburg IL 61401

There will be a second collection on the weekend Masses June 14-15 for this appeal. Special envelopes will be provided for this collection.
